

Pre-Seminary and Applied Theology Curriculum Map

Program Learning Outcomes for the department

PLO#1: Students understand the origin of the Bible, recognize the unique qualities of God's word, appreciate the varied yet unified content of the OT and NT, use sound principles in interpreting Scripture.

PLO#2: Students recognize the Bible as the authoritative source for knowledge of God and humankind, articulate key doctrines of the Christian faith, especially the gospel of Jesus Christ, and apply the teachings of Scripture.

PLO#3: Students develop appreciation for how God has worked in history, recognize key figures and movements in the life of the Church, and identify the state of theology today.

PLO#4: Students grow in their relationship with Christ and will put his teachings into practice in their vocations.

PLO#5: Students observe, assess, and interpret today's cultures and world views. Students will be familiar with various methods of delivering and defending biblical truth in a relevant and practical way to diverse groups.

PLO#6: Students demonstrate an understanding of research skills in the discipline.
